

Earn Double Tier Points on Holidays

Offer extended for travel to 31 December 2023

We've extended our offer, making holidays twice as rewarding. Executive Club Members can now earn double the Tier Points on flights taken as part of a package holiday with British Airways Holidays for travel to 31 December 2023.

To qualify, you'll need to book a holiday (flights + hotel or flights + car) of at least five nights for travel before 31 December 2023. This includes solo travellers and any holidays you've already booked with us. So, as well as enjoying that well-earned escape, you'll top up your Tier Point balance handsomely - helping you rise through the Tiers to unlock additional Club benefits, such as priority check-in and lounge access each time you travel.

Bonus Tier Points will be awarded separately to standard Tier Points and within 14 days of your return flight.

Executive Club Members must add their membership number to their booking prior to travel in order to claim the bonus points.

And remember, as well as your double Tier Points, all Executive Club Members will continue to collect 1 Avios for every £1 spent on a British Airways Holidays package. Not an Executive Club Member? Sign up here.

After all, you've earned more than just a holiday.

What are Tier Points?

As well as Avios, you'll collect Tier Points every time you fly with us. Avios unlock your rewards, Tier Points unlock your Club benefits.

Here's what you need to know about Tier Points:

- There are four Executive Club tiers: Blue, Bronze, Silver and Gold.
- Your Executive Club membership begins at the Blue Tier and Tier Points help you climb the Tiers.
- You collect Tier Points when you fly. The amount you earn depends on your ticket type and fare class.
- The more Tier Points you collect, the more benefits you'll receive as you move through the Tiers.
- Unlike Avios, Tier Points can't be spent on rewards and they reset back to zero every year.
